

I am astonished to learn of the potential abuse of a license to broadcast. Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Such an occurrence would be counter to all of the election reform ideas that have permeated our society for decades. This would be a frightening step BACKWARDS.

If/when the general public were to learn of this, they would generally be as infuriated as me. Repurcussions would be bad for our country in more ways than just in the media.

I strongly urge you to take appropriate measures to ensure our freedom of the airwaves is not encroached upon by special interests.
